London – June, 2011: W London – Leicester Square announces a summer line-up of festival-inspired documentaries and live screenings of the UK’s top music festivals in its 38-seater private screening room.

The festival celebrations begin with an exclusive showing of “Glastonbury the Movie” on Friday 24th June at 8pm followed by an evening of music and entertainment screened live from Glastonbury Festival. The screening of Glastonbury Festival will be the first in a series of summer music events taking place at W London.

“Some music lovers just want to dip in and out of the festival experience without encountering the busy crowds or muddy fields. From the luxury of our private screening room, guests will be able to enjoy the best of the action and watch the key headliners in comfort”, said Kevin Rockey, General Manager of W London – Leicester Square.

To ensure guests enjoy these events in style, W London will be offering table service in the 3D, state-of-the-art screening room. In addition, to accompany the screenings, Wyld – W London’s exclusive destination bar – has created a special Woodstock inspired cocktail, an exciting Absinth Martini.

Tickets for the festival screenings start from £5. To book, email denne.dempsey@whotels.com . Full listings of each screening and more dates added will be posted by Mr W at www.facebook.com/wlondonhotel and www.wlondon.co.uk/calendar.
